The key to the blend is ensuring it remains appropriate to your risk level. This is done automatically through a regular rebalancing process, to ensure that you will always hold your combination of funds in the proportions that meet your acceptable level of risk.

The Omnis Investment Committee — working on your behalf

Striving to find some of the best managers available and holding their performance to account is the Omnis Investment Committee's key task.

Its team of investment professionals has responsibility for ensuring that each manager delivers the performance that is expected of them. If they fail to do so over a period of time, Omnis has the right to seek an alternative manager and can make such a change without any administrative burden on you or your adviser.

The Committee meets monthly to assess each fund's performance, to ensure that any risks taken by the manager are within agreed parameters and that the funds are delivering to expectations. Although it reviews every fund in the range every time it meets, the Committee formally meets with each manager every year.

Meeting your investment needs

This strong oversight is a vital component of 2plan's investment solutions. Combining the skills and strengths of 2plan and Omnis means that the 2plan Graphene Model Portfolios provide a highly-distinctive and rigorously-managed way to meet your investment needs.

You can find out more about each of these individual funds by asking your adviser.

Funds are bought and sold automatically in order to rebalance the portfolios. If you are investing in a Platform Investment Account and make a gain as a result of rebalancing, you might be liable for Capital Gains Tax (CGT). Details should be included in your tax return if your total gains in the tax year exceed the annual CGT allowance.

Past performance is no guide to future performance and may not be repeated. The value of investments and any income from them can fall as well as rise and you may not get back the original amount invested.
